2. The website operator and personal data controller is: Przychodnia Weterynaryjna "U Weterynarza" Adam Sobotka, ul. Czarny Dwór 14/6, 80-505 Gdańsk, NIP 739 248 46 91, REGON 220489404
3. The operator's email address: uweterynarza@uweterynarza.pl
4. The operator is the controller of your personal data with respect to the data voluntarily provided on the website.
5. The website uses personal data for the following purposes:
 - Handling inquiries via forms
 - Presenting offers or information
6. The website collects information about users and their behavior in the following ways:
 1. Through data voluntarily entered in forms, which are entered into the Operator's systems.
 2. By storing cookies on end devices.

2. Selected data protection methods used by the Operator

1. Login and personal data entry points are protected at the transmission layer (SSL certificate). This means that personal data and login details entered on the website are encrypted on the user's computer and can only be read on the target server.
2. The Operator periodically changes its administrative passwords.
3. An important element of data protection is the regular updating of all software used by the Operator to process personal data, which in particular means regular updates of programming components.

3. Hosting

1. The website is hosted (technically maintained) on the Operator's server: home.pl.

2. To ensure technical reliability, the hosting company maintains logs at the server level. The following data may be recorded:

- resources identified by the URL identifier (addresses of requested resources – pages, files),
- time of request arrival,
- time of response,
- name of the client station – identification performed by the HTTP protocol,
- information about errors that occurred during the execution of an HTTP transaction,
- URL address of the page previously visited by the user (referrer link) – if the Website was accessed via a link,
- information about the user's browser,
- information about the IP address,
- diagnostic information related to the process of self-ordering services via on-site registrars,
- information related to the handling of emails addressed to the Operator and sent by the Operator.

4. Your rights and additional information about the use of data

1. In certain situations, the Controller has the right to transfer your personal data to other recipients if this is necessary to perform the contract concluded with you or to fulfill the Controller's obligations. This applies to the following groups of recipients:

- authorized employees and associates who use the data to achieve the purpose of the website's operation

2. Your personal data will be processed by the Controller no longer than necessary to perform the related activities specified in separate regulations (e.g., accounting regulations). With respect to marketing data, the data will not be processed for more than 3 years.

3. You have the right to request from the Controller:

- access to your personal data,
- rectification,
- erasure,
- restriction of processing,
- and data portability.

4. You have the right to object to the processing indicated in point 3.3 c) regarding the processing of personal data for the purpose of pursuing legitimate interests pursued by the Controller, including profiling. However, the right to object will not be exercised if there are compelling legitimate grounds for processing, overriding interests, rights, and freedoms, in particular the establishment, exercise, or defense of claims.

5. You may file a complaint against the Controller's actions to the President of the Personal Data Protection Office, ul. Stawki 2, 00-193 Warsaw.

6. Providing personal data is voluntary, but necessary to operate the Website.

7. You may be subject to automated decision-making, including profiling, for the purpose of providing services under the concluded contract and for the Controller's direct marketing purposes.

8. Personal data is transferred from third countries within the meaning of personal data protection regulations. This means that we transfer it outside the European Union.

5. Information in Forms

1. The website collects information voluntarily provided by the user, including personal data, if provided.

2. The website may save information about connection parameters (time stamp, IP address).

3. In some cases, the website may save information to facilitate linking the data in the form with the email address of the user completing the form. In such cases, the user's email address appears within the URL of the page containing the form.

4. The data provided in the form is processed for the purpose resulting from the function of the specific form, e.g., to process a service request or sales contact, register services, etc. Each time, the context and description of the form clearly indicate its purpose.

6. Administrator Logs

1. Information about user behavior on the website may be subject to logging. This data is used for website administration purposes.

7. Important Marketing Techniques

1. The operator uses statistical analysis of website traffic through Google Analytics (Google Inc., based in the USA). The operator does not transfer personal data to the operator of this service, only anonymized information. The service relies on the use of cookies on the user's end device. Regarding information about user preferences collected by the Google advertising network, the user can view and edit information derived from cookies using the tool:

<https://www.google.com/ads/preferences/>

8. Information about cookies

1. The website uses cookies.

2. Cookies are computer data, specifically text files, stored on the user's end device and intended for use with the website. Cookies typically contain the name of the website from which they originate, their storage time on the device, and a unique number.

3. The entity that places cookies on the user's end device and obtains access to them is the website operator.

4. Cookies are used for the following purposes:

1. maintaining the user's session (after logging in), so that the user does not have to re-enter their login and password on each subpage of the website; 2. achieving the purposes specified above in the "Important Marketing Techniques" section;

5. The Website uses two basic types of cookies: "session cookies" and "persistent cookies." "Session cookies" are temporary files that are stored on the User's end device until logging out, leaving the website, or disabling the software (web browser). "Persistent" cookies are stored on the User's end device for the time specified in the cookie parameters or until they are deleted by the User.

6. Website browsing software (web browser) usually allows cookies to be stored on the User's end device by default. Users of the Website can change their settings in this regard. The web browser allows the deletion of cookies. It is also possible to automatically block cookies. Detailed information on this subject can be found in the help or documentation provided in the web browser.

7. Restrictions on the use of cookies may affect some of the functionalities available on the Website's web pages. 8. Cookies placed on the Website User's end device may also be used by entities cooperating with the Website operator, in particular: Google (Google Inc., based in the USA), Facebook (Facebook Inc., based in the USA), Twitter (Twitter Inc., based in the USA).

9. Managing cookies – how to express and withdraw consent in practice?

1. If the user does not wish to receive cookies, they can change their browser settings. Please note that disabling cookies required for authentication, security, and maintaining user preferences may make it difficult, and in extreme cases, impossible, to use websites.

2. To manage cookie settings, select the web browser you are using from the list below and follow the instructions:
